EXPECTATIONS OF EACH PARTY:

Client agrees to pay all fees associated with requested work and participate fully in the information-gathering process for creating career documents — including, but not limited to, answering questions, providing copies of previous career marketing documents, providing links to job postings for the career target identified as the focus of the job search, and giving as much information as possible in order to create interview-winning career marketing documents.

Client agrees to complete a custom questionnaire thoroughly and accurately, to the best of his/her ability. While a telephone consultation is available to clarify issues not fully explained in the questionnaire, client agrees not to use this as a substitute for completing the questionnaire.

Mistry Consulting Services Inc. will not be responsible for missed deadlines if client is late in providing information or does not approve of work in a timely manner at any stage of the process.

Client must review all career documents for accuracy (including errors and missing or incomplete content, job titles, descriptions, accomplishments, dates of employment, and correct spellings) and respond by email with any changes or corrections (or approval to finalize) within 7 days of receipt of the draft documents. If changes are indicated, Mistry Consulting Services Inc. will provide one additional draft of the document for client review and approval. Approval of the second draft is required within 3 days of draft delivery. If corrections or approval are not provided within the timeline specified, it is assumed the documents are acceptable and the project will be finalized on the 30th day following delivery of the first draft.

Requests for changes, corrections, or revisions after project is finalized will be subject to additional charges at the rate of $50/hour, billable in quarter-hour increments.

TIMELINESS AND PROJECT FINALIZATION:

Unless other arrangements are made, document drafts are provided within 7-10 days from when the client information is received (phone consultation completed or completed questionnaire received from client). Client is responsible for notifying Mistry Consulting Services Inc. if the draft documents are not received by the expected delivery date.

Rush service is available at an additional $150.00 premium. Please provide 24 hours' notice for any consultations that need to be rescheduled.

If the project has not been finalized 30 days from the date of this agreement, the project will be considered complete and the client will forfeit the rights to any services not used.

Changes after finalization — including client's discretionary revisions — are subject to additional charges at Mistry Consulting Services Inc.'s current hourly rate of $40/hour, billed in quarter-hour increments.

WARRANTY DISCLAIMER:

I understand that Mistry Consulting Services Inc. will work with me in good faith to compose and design exceptional career marketing materials based on the data I provide.

I understand that the documents composed by Mistry Consulting Services Inc. must be marketed properly to produce interviews, and that no guarantee of interviews, job offers, or employment is made when utilizing the services of Mistry Consulting Services Inc.. Client accepts full responsibility for the outcome of any job search campaign and agrees to not hold Mistry Consulting Services Inc. responsible for lack of interviews or job offers, failure to obtain employment, or any other related outcomes.

Client success is directly dependent on the effort, commitment, and diligence employed using the new career document and a variety of job search strategies (applying for advertised positions, networking, social media search, direct contact with potential employers, etc.). Outcomes are affected by many external variables,
